WARESLEY-CUM-TETWORTH PARISH COUNCIL
Chairman's report May 2015

Telephone Box: Door replaced: thanks to John Archer for liaising with BT

Highways: Speed tests done with Speedwatch equipment: thanks to all who took part and especially JA and Mel Child for organising tests.

Application for speed reducing measures (chicane) on Gamlingay Rd submitted to Local Highways Improvement Funding bid by JA and EJ: presentation to panel: not successful – placed 18th where the first 15 were accepted.

Vicarage Rd group did not submit application for Gransden Rd on advice from the Police traffic management officer. Pursuing alternative means of proceeding.

New Clerk

Geraldine Fensome resigned in June after 3 years and we were without a clerk until November, when Sylvia Sullivan stepped into the breach. Many thanks to Sylvia for help and professional expertise.

Website: www.waresley.org.uk

Still in progress. Set up by Andy Oxley – so far refused any money for this. Have sent him contact details, parish minutes and history.

Consultations:

Gave comments on behalf of pc on subject of electoral review for county councillors, Local Development Plan

Parish planting: David Morgan continues to do great work as our tree warden-hedging along the paddock in Gamlingay Rd

Litter pick: End March. Covered most of the roads in the Waresley.
